

Tampa Uncovered Alternative Break Packing List

Clothing:

- long pants and shirts for work—short sleeves are OK.
- Solid shoes—tennis shoes are not acceptable—they must be thick-soled shoes. There are no exceptions.
- Pants, long sleeve shirts/sweaters for evenings (casual)—the days will be warm and the nights cold.
- Friday night Shabbat clothes – nicer than everyday, but doesn't need to be fancy
- Jacket / sweatshirt
- Sleepwear
- Bathing suit and cover up

 March will be cold at night, cool in the morning and hot during the day. Layering is the best idea! It is ok to wear work clothes multiple times! Also make sure to check the weather for the week before packing! The average temperatures in Tampa for this time of year are High 76°-Low 58°.

Sleeping:

- Sleeping bag or sheets to fit a twin size mattress (don't forget to bring a pillow case!)
- We will be sleeping on mattresses so bring sheets if you want.

Other:

- Nalgene bottle, or similar water bottle
- Toiletries
- Towel
- Beach towel
- Sunscreen
- Journal, pen
- Playing cards, board games
- Favorite poem or quote
- Siddur (and other religious items if that is your custom)
- Sunglasses
- Flashlight
- Shower shoes
- Guitar, drums, or other instruments
- Baseball hat or visor for work
- Bug Spray
- Umbrella or raincoat

Gear for work projects:

- Work gloves (not garden gloves)
- For work with Tampa Bay Watch, you'll need: closed-toe shoes and clothing that you can get dirty. Also, bring sunscreen, a hat, and bug spray.

Pack lightly – your things will be kept in shared space.
